

HEYL, Bernard Edwin Age 94, passed away June 24, 2018 in Dayton, Ohio. Born and raised in Pittsburgh PA, graduate of Central District Catholic High School.

A WWII veteran, served in the US Army Air Corps earned the European African Middle Eastern Service Medal and WWII Victory Medal. Served as support during the Korean War and was in the US Air Force Reserve. Graduate of Indiana Technical College with a BS in aeronautical engineering. Worked for McDonnell Douglas and Boeing, returned to government service at the Foreign Technology Division at WPAFB in Dayton, Ohio. Graduate of Defense Intelligence School with an MS in strategic intelligence. Raised a wonderful family whom he loved, devoted to his Catholic faith and enjoyed travel, soccer, bowling and golf. A member of the Knights Of Columbus, honor of the Fourth Degree. Retired from WPAFB. Survived by his wife of 67 years Myrtis Ebbert Heyl, children Donna Heyl, Carol Obermeyer (Dale), Michael Heyl, Janet Klemm (David), Mary Knight (Randy) and Stephen Heyl (Jackie), 15 grand children and 4 great grand children. Preceded in death by his parents, 6 siblings, a grandchild and a great grandchild. Donating his body to medical research, a Memorial Mass will be held at St. Albert the Great in Kettering, Ohio on Thursday, June 28 at noon. In lieu of flowers, donations can be made to Right To Life or Alzheimer's Association.

Published in Dayton Daily News from June 26 to June 27, 2018.